

Welcome to our project bulletin #3 where we keep you up-to-date with our latest news and stories!

In the third issue of the bulletin, you can read a short report and view pictures from our third workshop and find out more about the project partners' research and activities. We also bring you the latest news from our "Latest News" section and cite some related websites that might be interest to you.

1) LATEST NEWS

Call for papers (deadline 14 November 2011): Colloquium on the relationship between fashion and time (exact title to be confirmed), 27-28 March 2012, Grand Amphithéâtre de l'Université Lumière Lyon 2.

Organised by: L'Université de la Mode – Université Lumière Lyon 2.

Download the Call for Papers from the News page of our website:

<http://www.fashioningtheearlymodern.ac.uk/news/>

Spandex to Sportstech: Fashion and Innovation in Sportswear
8th of November 2011, University of Copenhagen

Organized by The Danish National Research Foundation's Centre for Textile Research, University of Copenhagen.

Visit the conference website to find out how to register, view the conference programme, abstracts of papers, information on speakers and how to access the remote participation.

<http://spandex.saxo.ku.dk/>

2) REPORT from the 3rd workshop on Early Modern Textile Production, 5 – 8 October 2011, Copenhagen & Aarhus.

Between the 5 and the 8 October 2011, 28 participants from Denmark, Sweden, United Kingdom, Finland, France, Italy, Germany and Australia took part in the 3rd project workshop on Early Modern Textile Production. The workshop was organised by Marie-Louise Nosh (Centre for Textile Research, University of Copenhagen), Maj Ringgaard (National Museum of Denmark) and Tove Engelhardt Matthiassen (Open Air Museum, Aarhus).

In the morning of the first day, participants visited the Brede Manor House, the National Museum conservation workshop and the Rosenborg Castle conservation department where they saw selected items from the Royal Danish costume collection. In the afternoon, they visited the study rooms of the National Museum's Store Rooms where they saw selected textiles from NMD's collections. On the second day, the participants visited the Old Town Museum in Aarhus and had the opportunity to view selected items from the textile collection. The afternoon of the second day was dedicated to a PhD student presentation session followed by a discussion.

A selection of images from the workshop can be viewed on our website:

<http://www.fashioningtheearlymodern.ac.uk/workshops/workshop-3/workshop-3-photos/>

3) PARTNERS' RESEARCH AND ACTIVITIES

Exhibition: Woven dreams of fashion Ebba von Eckermann and Ripsa, 1950-1980, October 14, 2010–January 8, 2011,
Hallwylska Museet, Stockholm

Curator: Patrik Steorn, Centre for Fashion Studies, Stockholm University

Read our post on the project blog:

<http://fashioningtheearlymodern.wordpress.com/2011/10/25/exhibition-woven-dreams-of-fashion-ebba-von-eckermann-and-ripsa-1950-1980/>

“Extracts of Probate Records from Danish Towns”, The Danish National Foundation's Centre for Textile Research, University of Copenhagen, project by Camilla Luise Dahl

Extracts of probate records from a selection of Danish towns are being transcribed and will be available on the website below as work progresses. Extracts will be given from 18 towns from across Denmark.

http://ctr.hum.ku.dk/other_research_projects/earlymodern/postdocproject/extracts/

Livrustkammeren Database to be launched

The Livrustkammeren (The Royal Armoury) database (MuseumPlus database) will be launched at the end of November 2011. It will give open access to the Royal Armoury's unique collections, as well as the Skokloster Castle and Hallwyl museum collections.

More on this story will be placed on our project blog in due course.

4) MISCELLANEOUS

The following websites might be of interest:

Ländliche Eliten: Bäuerlich-bürgerliche Eliten in den friesischen Marschen und den angrenzenden Geestgebieten

German: <http://www.laendliche-eliten.de/index.php>

English summary: <http://www.laendliche-eliten.de/projekt/english-summary.html>

Kongedragter, De Danske Kongers Kronoloske Samling
<http://www.kongedragter.dk/>

The Kings of Denmark, The Royal Danish Collections
<http://dkks.dk/the-kings-of-denmark>